

Next term, the P1-3 class will be looking at the history of the Tay Bridge.

We are hoping to

- Look at different types of historical evidence
- Learn about a time in Scotland's past by visiting a museum/historical site

If anyone has any information or resources that could help us, please let the school know.

